Understanding Cyber Systems, Operations & Technology Advances

MICROMODULE

Kevin Kuczynski - April 9, 2019

Description

Module I Week 1 Lesson 2. Cyber Operations Law and Policy Understanding Cyber Systems, Operations, & Technology Advances.

Outcomes

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain what state cyber attacks are, and identify what cyber psychological manipulation might be

remember and understand

Students will be able to explain how internet technology has expanded since search engines emerged and understand what that progress looks like to an average user.

remember and understand

Students will be able to understand how different iot devices and technologies are in current use, and explore legal issues that may ensue from that technology

remember and understand

Students will be able to identify what technology is part of the internet of things, and understand what that means