1. Grant of Licence

PCS grants you a nonexclusive, nontransferable licence to use the enclosed program (the "Software") and its printed manual and other accompanying material ("Documentation") with equipment owned by you or under your control, according to the terms and conditions of this Licence Agreement. This Licence Agreement permits a single user to use the Software on only one computer at one location at any one time. However, if this Software is being licensed to you for use over a network, you may operate the Software as a multiple-user installation with either:

- > the maximum number of concurrent users being two (2) or more, in which case you must buy the first complete Software package and also a specified number of licenses for each additional concurrent user.

Back-Up Copy: Regardless of which version of the Software you have acquired, this Licence permits you to make only one archival (back-up) copy of the Software. Such archival copy may not be installed on another computer, unless such computer is a partitioned drive of a server to which only the authorised user has access. In any event, the archival copy may not be used or installed as long as another copy of the Software is installed on any computer. If the Documentation is in printed form, it may not be copied. If the Documentation is in electronic form, you may print out one (1) copy, which may not be copied.

Upgrades: If this Software is labeled as an upgrade to software previously licensed to you, you must destroy all copies of the software previously licensed to you replaced by this Software, including any copies resident on your hard disk drive, and return the hardware lock, if any, which accompanied the software previously licensed to you (unless PCS explicitly notifies you that the hardware lock is to be used with the upgrade), within sixty days of acquiring this Software. PCS reserves the right to require you to show satisfactory proof that previous copies of the Software have been destroyed. If the hardware lock is not returned within the stipulated period, PCS reserves the right, without limitation, to charge you, and you shall pay the difference in price between the upgrade licence price and the suggested retail price of this Software. Software patches, if any, provided to you by PCS or an authorised third-party in connection with the Software licensed to you hereunder shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Licence Agreement unless otherwise specified at the time of delivery.

Authorisation Code: Any customer will get his own licence key for his licence package.
