Eliminate multiple targets in one shot with built-in nuclear warheads.

Life is full of little frustrations, and most of them are caused by other people. Maybe your Boss is giving you a hard time. Perhaps some boob cut you off on the highway. Until recently, your only real options for revenge were cheap handguns or slow poison. But now there's the Napalm Pilot. Revenge was never so sweet. Why settle for just offing your boss when you can blow up an entire city block? Does killing someone seem extreme to you? No problem! Napalm Pilot's power ranges from annoying to deadly. It can be loaded with anything from a common stink bomb to a city-razing nuclear warhead. It's totally customizable. You decide how much ordinance you need, and how badly you want your target to suffer.
